Lori Evans

Saturday, October 22, 2011

Frederick, Maryland

Lori Evans will guide you through an inventory of the areas of your life that need focus. Identify what stops you from having the life you want. Examine relationships, work situations, spirituality, health and appearance, leisure and recreation and much more!

You will have the opportunity to journal and map out a new vision for a life with balance, grace, joy and prosperity. At the end of the retreat you will have your own Vision Notebook to provide a tangible representation of the life you are choosing to live and to help you achieve it. There will be opportunities for networking and sharing new career possibilities!

Lori Evans
President and CEO
Evans Communications Group, LLC

Lori Evans has been providing organizations with training solutions for over 18 years. She is a proven expert at teaching business leaders practical techniques to further develop communication skills and leadership abilities. These skills are essential to projecting personal and corporate excellence in today's competitive market place.

Lori is well known for her dynamic seminars on:

- ◆ Leadership Development
- ◆ Excellent Customer Service
- ◆ Effectively Managing Change
- ◆ Conflict Resolution
- ◆ Effective Coaching

Nominated for "Training Consultant of the Year" by The American Society for Training and Development, Lori has been the keynote speaker at national business conferences and has appeared on television talk shows. She has been on the faculty for the Virginia Bankers School of Bank Management since 2002. Her clients include the U.S. Army ... MD Department of Transportation ... BankAnnapolis ... Central Virginia Bank ... Accenture ... Virginia Bankers Association ... and Southside Bank.

Lori maintains, "Inaction diminishes the spirit. It dishonors the spirit inside us and it dishonors the spirit within the culture. Integrity can help us define who we are and it can guide us to experience more ease, grace and joy in the workplace and in our personal lives. It's about honoring ourselves and honoring the culture in which we work. It's also about creating the ideal culture in which you want to work."

Through her training programs she will lead you through the process of transforming your workplace and your life into one that functions with more integrity, better communication, and a spirit of community.
